……Petitioner

And

The Station House Officer, Chaderghat Police Station,

Hyderabad and three others

……Respondents

:: ORDER ::

Counsel for the Petitioner : Sri K.G. Kannabhiran, Amicus

Counsel for the Respondents : Government Pleader for Home

Dated: 03-04-2006

Per G.S. SINGHVI, CJ

Petition sent by Sri P. Varavara Rao who was lodged in Central Prison, Chanchalguda, Hyderabad in connection with F.I.R.No.353 of 2005 registered at Chaderghat Police Station on 19-08-2005 was treated as a taken up petition and notice was issued to the respondents.

Sri Kannabhiran says that after issuance of notice of the petition, the petitioner has been discharged by the trial Court and he has been released. Sri Kannabhiran says that notwithstanding this development, the Court should decide the issue relating to the passing of remand orders by different Courts without even looking at the remand papers and without application of mind.

In the context of the statement made by Sri Kannabhiran, it is apposite to mention that no research based material has been placed on the record of this petition so as to enable the Court to make an attempt to fathom the casualness with which the remand orders are passed by different Courts and we feel that it will be appropriate to leave this question to be decided in some other appropriate petition.

With the above observations, the taken up petition is disposed of as infructuous.
